The American Red Cross Volunteer Lifesaving Corps (<http://redcrosslifeguard.org/>) was founded in 1912 by concerned citizens outraged at the incidence of drowning along Northeast Florida's Shores. The proud tradition of oceanfront lifeguarding continues today and we would not be able to do our job without the Storm Whistle. It is standard issue to all recruits who graduate our extensive training program and no other whistles are allowed on our towers. Whether fighting against a 30 knot winds in a nor'easter or signaling for backup from the water, the Storm is always there and always reliable.

Serving since 1996,
Justin Sempstrott
